Sermon Notes

New Jerusalem - Revelation 21-22 - Series: Last Things - #29

1. When Jesus ascended into heaven, He returned to His Father's house, and began to _____ a place for us there.
2. When _____ deems the time is right, Jesus will return to gather the redeemed of the church age and take them back to the home He has prepared for them.
3. This new home will be _____ different than the heaven and earth we know today for they will be purified of sin and the ravages of the curse.
4. The defining characteristic of heaven is that it is the _____ of God.
5. Knowing that God will dwell with His people in the New Jerusalem, then the New Jerusalem is where _____ and _____ have come together in one place.
6. Because it is where God will dwell with His people, the New Jerusalem will be our _____ home.
7. In New Jerusalem, in our redeemed, sanctified, glorified bodies, we will see the _____ of God in all of its brilliance.
8. God's glory is so brilliant, its radiance so enduring, its purity so penetrating, that there is no need for the _____ or the _____ to shine upon New Jerusalem.
9. New Jerusalem will be _____ km in length, width, and height – a perfect cube. Its wall will be _____ meters thick and will be adorned with three gates in each of the four walls.
10. These gates will each be made out of an individual pearl – perhaps as a reminder to us of the extent of God's _____ and _____ that He has lavished upon us.
11. Within the city will be the river of the _____ of life, the _____ of life, and the _____ of God and of the Lamb.
12. We will serve God, not reluctantly, or begrudgingly, but _____ and _____. All that makes work here a tiresome burden, or an inconvenience, or an unpleasant necessity, will be removed and no longer a hindrance to us.
13. Therefore, as Paul says, let us ... fix our eyes not on what is _____, but on what is _____. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal. (2 Corinthians 4:18, NIV84)
