Andrew, Tasha, and Madison Seigny would like to thank the congregation for their generosity in providing everything in their Christmas Hamper. It is very much appreciated. We want to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We look forward to serving together with the church in sharing the Good News in 2024.

Sermon Notes:

A Way In A Manger - Matthew 1:18-25

1. Have you ever wondered where God is when the carefully crafted script of your life is being rewritten and your hopes and dreams come crashing down?
2. How did God reveal Himself to you in and through that time?
3. The same news that brought Mary so much joy threw Joseph into a _____ of the soul.
4. A righteous man or woman seeks to live according to God's standards, _____ placing all the things of life under the authority of the Lord, and moving in obedience to His revealed will. Could you be considered righteous?
5. "Why do _____ things happen to _____ people?"
6. In the darkest part, of Joseph's darkest days, he discovers the depths of God's great _____.
7. "And we know that in _____ God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose." (Romans 8:28, NIV84)
8. Have you ever wondered why an angel didn't appear to Mary and Joseph at the same moment to share this news with them? Wouldn't it have been easier?
9. Often, in the dark nights of the soul, God is transforming our _____ so that we might see Him more clearly.
10. We, like Joseph, can find great comfort in the angel's words, " _____ ..."
11. What Joseph hears in the angel's words transforms his understanding of _____.
12. "God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16, NIV84)

For Reflection

1. In what situations are you wrestling to see God at work?
2. What perceptions do you think God might be at work trying to transform?
3. How might God redeem these moments of your life?
4. Where do you find comfort and hope in Joseph's story?
