Sermon Notes:

The Blood of the New Covenant

1 Corinthians 11:23-32

1. Some live with a form of godliness but deny its power. Like the empty shell of the mantis they have the _____ of life but are empty inside.
2. Paul preached, “not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit’s power, so that your faith might not rest on men’s wisdom, but on God’s _____.”
3. The Lord’s Supper is a reminder of our _____ from slavery to sin and into new life through faith in Christ Jesus our Lord.
4. As we share the Lord’s Supper together we are walking in _____ to the word and will of God.
5. As we share the Lord’s Supper together, we remember our _____.
6. The sacrifices of the Old Testament were a _____ of something better that was to come in Jesus Christ.
7. This celebration reminds us of God’s _____ in the midst of our need.
8. The Lord’s Supper _____ that Jesus died on our behalf that we might live through Him and it proclaims that He is coming again.
9. We must _____ ourselves before sharing in the Lord’s Supper together.
10. The call to examine ourselves is not meant to drive us away from the grace of God, but rather to bring us to the foot of the cross where the blood of Christ has been poured out, and the _____ of God’s grace, established.
11. In verse 27, when Paul speaks of the “body of Christ” he is referring to all of the _____ who make up the church.
12. How are we to come to the Lord’s table in a worthy manner?
 - We come with hearts and minds _____ on Jesus
 - We come _____ our need and God’s provision
 - We acknowledge that sin brings death and separation but in Christ we receive _____ and reconciliation
13. We come examining our own hearts, seeking any _____ between ourselves and God, and between ourselves and our brothers and sisters in Christ.
