Sermon Notes

To Strengthen and Encourage

1 Thessalonians 3:1-8

Series: 1 Thessalonians #16

1. When we paint an unrealistic picture of the Christian life, we are setting people up for failure and _____.
2. When we fail to disciple new believers, we are, in a sense, _____ their spiritual growth and holding them back from the life they could have in Christ.
3. Paul openly discussed with the Thessalonians the _____ they could expect if they chose to follow Jesus and he kept _____ into their lives to prepare them for the opposition that would come.
4. _____ – the conflict being waged between the Kingdom of Light, and the Kingdom of Darkness, that finds expression in both the physical and spiritual realms.
5. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have _____ power to demolish strongholds. (2 Corinthians 10:4)
6. Therefore, you are to put on the full _____ so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. (Ephesians 6:11)
7. This spiritual battle is the backdrop to the _____ the Christians in Thessalonica had been experiencing.
8. Trials, hardship, and suffering are _____ in this world.
9. So Paul sent Timothy to the Thessalonians to _____ and _____ them in their faith that they would not be “unsettled” by the trials they were suffering.
10. How a person responds in the face of suffering and persecution is greatly influenced by their view of God's _____ and their understanding of His _____.
11. A _____ faith is a _____ faith, and it is easily shattered by the turmoil and suffering of this world.
12. Our experience with, and perception of, what we may be undergoing, can be radically altered as we begin to look at these things through a _____.
13. The disciples, for example, went on their way ... rejoicing because they had been counted _____ of _____ disgrace for the Name [of Jesus]. (Acts 5:41, NIV84)
14. We often don't have a say in the difficult things that come our way, but we do have a say in how we will _____ in the midst of them.
15. What do the Scriptures say about your struggles or suffering? How can we allow God's word to re-frame the way we think about these things?
16. The Thessalonians benefited (were encouraged and strengthened in their faith) because Paul was willing to lay aside his personal _____ in order that others could be blessed.
17. How _____ are we to step into the _____ of someone's life, and offer them some form of support, that they might experience the love and grace of God in their time of need?
18. The process of encouraging others isn't always _____ though. Sometimes, something that seems a little thing to us, might be a life _____ blessing for someone else.
19. How have you been encouraged, or found your faith strengthened by, someone else?
20. How can you encourage, and strengthen the faith of others, in the days of this coming week?
