Ways to attend service

In-person

Please remember to reserve seat(s) each week you plan to attend.

- Email parksidegospelsecretary@gmail.com
- Indicate how many people will be attending (including children and worship team)
- Indicate which space you would prefer to be seated in (Sanctuary or Activity Center).
If your preferred space is not available, I will contact you.

Drive-in

- You do not need to reserve a drive-in spot.
- Once parked, tune into 101.7 FM.

YouTube

We will continue to stream Sunday morning service on our YouTube channel. If you are unable to attend in person, or are feeling unwell, please join us there!

NOTE:

Due to current Public Health Orders that limit our capacity, we kindly ask that everyone that plans to attend our Sunday Service (including those involved in the service) reserve their seats each week. Thank you.

Plan to Protect Orientation training will take place on January 22, 2022. Anybody that plans to work with children through any of Parkside's ministries must undergo this training. More details to come in. Please email parksidegospelsecretary@gmail.com with any questions.

2. A is for _____ – praise directed towards God.
3. C is for _____ – an admission that we have fallen short of God's glory.
4. T is for _____ – for God's mighty works and blessings we have received.
5. S is for _____ – the things we ask the Lord for.
6. It's been said that "God makes us miserable through conviction to make us happy through _____. If God brings sinful actions, words, or deeds to our minds, then we are to confess these things to the Lord. _____." (Author Unknown)
7. There is truth in that saying because when _____ lies heavy on our hearts, _____ flees until we experience God's forgiveness.
8. When we tolerate sin in our lives, we become _____ to it and hunger after ever greater expressions of it.
9. In Isaiah 59 we discover that God had "hidden His face" from the people of Israel because their many sins had _____ them from their God.
10. Our prayers may go _____, and God may seem _____ from us, when, instead of turning from it, we cherish our sin and seek to excuse or justify it.
11. When we _____ our sins to the Lord, we are coming into _____ with God about our sin.
12. Sin hinders both our _____ with God and our _____ with others.
13. Therefore, we are to practice _____ as well as asking God to _____ our hearts and reveal any offensive ways within us. (Psalm 139)
14. Facets of our lives to be examined include ...
The _____ we have / what consumes our minds?
15. We are to "take captive every thought to make it _____ to Christ." (2 Corinthians 10:5)
16. Facets of our lives to be examined include ...
Our _____ – Are we prideful? Selfish? Greedy? Un-loving?
Our _____ – Are we speaking truth? Building people up or tearing them down? Gossiping?
Our _____ – Have we been reconciled one to another? Are these relationships God honoring? What about our marriage?
Our _____ – The things that we do and give ourselves to.
17. If God brings sinful actions, words, or deeds to our minds, then we are to _____ these things to the Lord.
18. Confession is _____ with God, about the nature of our sin. As we do so, we are responding to the convicting work of the Holy Spirit that we might become more like Christ.
19. As we confess our sin, and receive forgiveness, the joy of our _____ is restored as we walk in closer fellowship with God.
