Sermon Notes

The Triumphal Entry - Luke 19:29-44 - Palm Sunday 2023

1. As the Passover approached, many looked for Jesus to come and announce Himself as the _____.
2. The Pharisees though, looked for Jesus in order to _____ Him. They were only kept from doing so at that time because it appeared to them that “the whole _____ had gone after,” Jesus.
3. By their shouts of acclamation, the crowds were proclaiming Jesus as their king. The Pharisees, alarmed by this, commanded Jesus to “_____” His disciples.
4. Passover was a time that was ripe for _____ because Passover was a celebration of _____.
5. However, while the crowds celebrated and rejoiced at the coming of their king, Jesus _____.
6. The people shouted out “Hosanna,” which means, “God save us, God deliver us!” But they were looking for a _____ freedom rather than a _____ one.
7. Jesus wept because the people hadn’t recognized the time of God’s coming to them. He understood the sorrow that their _____ of heart would bring them, in the years to come.
8. Some 40 years later, Israel would rise up against Rome with devastating results. Their rebellion will be crushed, their citizens slaughtered, and their temple _____, by the Roman general, Titus.
9. Jesus wept for a people who were cognizant of their Roman oppressors but who, at the same time, were blinded to the oppression of their _____.
10. The peace this world offers is _____ at best, and intangible and deceitful, at worst.
11. Jesus: “I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have _____ the world.” (John 16:33)
12. Many of the people of Jesus’ day looked for a savior made “in their own _____,” but in doing so, missed the _____ that they truly needed.
13. The day is coming when the patience of God, which is intended for the _____ of men, will come to an end.
14. How will the knowledge that tomorrow is never _____ impact how we live our lives, today?
15. By God’s grace, may we _____ in those things in which God rejoices, and may our hearts be _____ by those things which break His heart.
