Sermon Notes

The First Seal - Revelation 6:1-2 - Series: Last Things - #11

1. Jesus will one day come in the air, the dead in Christ will rise, and those believers still alive will be transformed. Together they will be caught up to be with the Lord forever. This is called, the _____ .
2. But what about the world that remains? What happens to those who are left behind?

3. In those parts of the world where there is a visible, significant, Christian presence, the immediate aftermath of the rapture is likely to be _____ .
4. What social, economic, and political impact is likely to be experienced by those who are not raptured?

5. If the Holy Spirit is the “restrainer of lawlessness” that Paul mentions in 2 Thessalonians, what happens when that restraining presence is removed with believers at the rapture?

6. The chaos, devastation, despair, and conflict that arises after the rapture, sets the stage for what comes next on the _____ timetable.
7. In Revelation 5, Jesus is the _____ looking as though it had been slain. He is the _____ of the tribe of Judah and He is the root of David.
8. Jesus alone has the _____ to take the scroll that John sees, and Jesus alone is _____ to open its seals, because it is Jesus who was slain and with His blood purchased a people for God.
9. The rider that comes forth with the breaking of the first seal is the first of the Four Horsemen of the _____ .
10. It is likely that this first horseman is a symbol of the coming of the _____ and of his rise to world power and prominence.
11. He may come on the scene in the aftermath and chaos of the rapture, promising _____ , and _____ , to a world that has been shaken and broken by all that has transpired.
12. But the stability he brings will be _____ and the peace that he promises will be _____ .
13. How ought we to respond to these things?

If you are in Christ today, may our hearts be moved to gratitude, thanksgiving, and worship, that we will be spared the turmoil and chaos of the years following the rapture.

For those who have not yet received Christ – I urge you to be reconciled to God.

For those who have been made new creations through faith in Christ Jesus – be about the work that God has set for us to do. Tell your family, friends, and neighbors about Jesus.
