Sermon Notes

Worthy of Praise - 1 Samuel 1 - Mother's Day

1. It was from within the _____ of her soul that Hannah wept and prayed to the Lord.
2. As we turn to God in prayer, not only can He bring comfort and healing, but He can _____ the shattered moments of our lives.
3. What's more important - the _____ of time spent with a child, or the _____ of time spent with them? Why?
4. Hannah was a woman who _____ the Lord.
5. Our culture tends to idolize a woman's physical appearance, but the Scriptures remind us that "charm is _____, and beauty is _____."
6. Our identity and self-worth should not be based on our physical appearance but rather on who we are in _____.
7. A man, or woman, who fears the Lord, cultivates and _____ an ever-deepening relationship with God.
8. "The Wife of Noble Character," of Proverbs 31, was acknowledged for ...
 - a. Her willingness to bless and encourage her husband,
 - b. Speaking _____ to him in love, and
 - c. Seeking to bring him good all the days of her life.
 - d. Industrious _____ her household, and her business,
 - e. Using her time wisely, and
 - f. _____ her resources well.
 - g. Planning ahead,
 - h. Ensuring her family was never short of what was needed, and
 - i. _____ for the poor and the needy.
9. She spoke the word of God in _____ and loving kindness which means she must have had a deep relationship with God, herself.
10. What does it mean to fear the Lord?
11. Those who fear the Lord know that they can come to Him with their deepest _____.
12. Those who fear the Lord trust that the Lord will _____ for them in their need.
13. Those who fear the Lord build their life on the _____ (God).
14. Those who fear the Lord are _____ to the Lord regardless of the cost.
15. How can we more deeply walk in the fear of the Lord? What changes to how we live might we need to make in order to do so? What is holding us back?
